

Sacred Art of Living

Community for Spiritual Integration

A PILGRIMAGE TO SACRED IRELAND

"Where Heaven & Earth Meet"

with Richard Groves

$3900 per person/double occupancy

Airfare additional

Space is limited!

Single room accommodations are available for additional cost

Price includes first-class accommodations for eight nights and all in-Ireland transportation with daily Full Irish breakfasts. Also included is a special evening dinner celebration at the World Famous Wicklow Heather Inn with traditional Irish entertainment. Enjoy three nights in Dublin and five nights inside one of the world's great heritage sites, the ancient monastic city of Glendalough in beautiful Wicklow Mountains National Park. Other visits include the historic town of Kildare, birthplace of St. Brigid, and guided tours through the prehistoric and Druid sites of Newgrange and the ancient Hill of Tara. Special tours also include the ancient Book of Kells at Trinity College and the historic capital city of Dublin.

LOCATION

Glendalough and Newgrange are places where the veil between worlds is thin. Explore the many layers of prehistoric, medieval and sacred history in the birthplace of Anam Cara, the Celtic tradition of soul friendship. Simply being here teaches us something we have forgotten: how to simply be...

ACCOMMODATIONS

Staying at historic Glendalough Hotel, only accommodations on the grounds of the 6th century monastic city, is a rare treat. Enjoy delightful local cuisine and incomparable Irish music & hospitality in one of Europe's stunning peaceful, natural environments.

PILGRIMAGE PROGRAM

Richard Groves will facilitate an inspiring and relaxing pilgrimage retreat that explores the wisdom of the Celtic spiritual tradition— with daily opportunities to hike and learn from the beauty and heritage of the Irish landscape.

To sign up or for more information contact:

fiona@sacredartofliving.org or call Sacred Art of Living @ 541-383-4179